MISSOULA, Mont.--

Mrs. Ann R. Williams, Arnold, Calif., has donated $600 for the Olive M. Rector Memorial, an ongoing scholarship fund established at the University of Montana in Missoula in 1969.

Mrs. Williams, daughter of the late Mrs. Rector, established the fund in her mother's name to provide scholarships for deserving Montana girls, including coeds from minority groups who are sophomores, juniors and seniors at UM. Donald L. McDaniel, scholarship officer for the UM Financial Aids office, said scholarships awarded from the Rector fund are presented at the discretion of the UM Foundation.

Donna Lee La Vallie of Absarokee is the recipient of the 1973-74 Rector scholarship.
