HENRY DAHMER OF GREAT FALLS
IS PRESIDENT-ELECT OF UM ALUMNI ASSOC.

MISSOULA--

Henry F. "Dutch" Dahmer, dean of students at Great Falls High School, recently was named president-elect of the University of Montana Alumni Association.

Dahmer, who received his bachelor's degree in 1943 and master of education degree in 1951 at the University, taught and coached at Columbus High School before moving to the Electric City in 1948. He served as assistant principal at Great Falls High School and is a member of the board of directors of the Great Falls Lions Club.

He will attend meetings and become acquainted with the duties of the president before taking office in 1975. Maurice Colberg of Billings is current president, having succeeded Herbert Searles of Missoula.

Jeff V. Doggett of White Sulphur Springs was elected delegate-at-large. He is co-operator of Camas Creek Cattle and Sheep Co., past-president of the Meagher County Stockgrowers Association and chairman of the cattle health committee of the Montana Stockgrowers Association. He served as president of the White Sulphur Springs Chamber of Commerce.

The Alumni Association has three delegates-at-large, one of which is chosen each year for a three-year term. In addition, each of 13 districts in Montana is represented by two delegates. One delegate from each district is elected each year and serves for two years.

The new delegates elected for this year are: W. E. Pinkney, Polson; Jane Law Glennie, Twodot; Gail McLain Rader, Havre; Lois Larson Koch, Sidney; Gene Huntley, Baker; Jan Ilona Rodeghiero, Roundup; Ed Argenbright, Big Timber; William Doggett, White Sulphur Springs; Betsy Brown Holmquist, Dillon; James Koke, Superior; John Kavanaugh, Shelby; John Radonich, Anaconda, and Gail Paige Good, Ft. Benton.

Effie Smith, Sheridan, and Merrill Kovatch, Conrad, were chosen as new members of the Board of Directors by the UM Alumni Association House of Delegates in October.
