Jones moved that Central Board sanction polling in Corbin, South and Jumbo halls as well as the Student Union, providing precinct lists are available. The voting hours are to be from 10 a.m. to 4:20 p.m. Kugler seconded, motion carried.

Thorsrud is checking on the Central Board dinner plans.

Newlin moved that Central Board members receive a scroll in recognition of their services. Persons seconded. A discussion followed. Motion carried. Schlieman is on the committee to prepare the scroll.

Heune told of the organization of two new groups on campus, the Draggs and Kams. Their purpose is to promote school spirit through unorthodox antics. Persons moved we recognize the two organizations. Newlin seconded, motion carried.

Reynolds reported that there will be an NSA regional meeting May 2, 3, and 4th in Pullman.

Reynolds presented the by-law, division II, article VIII of the constitution concerning the Publicity-Travel Committee:

Membership: Junior or senior delegate to Central Board (chairman), Director of Public Service Division, vice-president of Spur, vice-president of Bear Paw, APO member, University Registrar, and six students to be appointed by Central Board. The six appointees shall include at least one person from each class and two of the six shall be appointed for two year terms. Additional non-voting members may be appointed at any time.

Duties: This committee shall be created for the purpose of administering the Publicity-Travel fund and shall plan and direct student activities which will induce new students to come to MSU. These publicity and promotional programs should include the following: (1) post card campaign to high school seniors, (2) MSU student visitations (individual and group) to Montana high schools, (3) visitations by high school students to the campus and (4) dissemination to high school students of publicity material and information of a type encouraging them to attend our institution. This committee shall cooperate with the University administration and other student organizations and committees to carry in out its duties.

Thorsrud suggested that the vice-president of ASMSU be automatically placed on the Student Union Executive board.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
