MISSOULA---

About 40 judges are needed for weekend events of the 1974 Big Sky Intercollegiate Speech Tournament at the University of Montana. The tournament is Saturday through Monday at UM.

Buford A. Crites, instructor in the UM Department of Interpersonal Communication, said judges are needed in several tournament categories. Crites said judges do not need to be experienced.

"We are looking for judges from all areas of interest," Crites said. "We hope to have some experts and some people who know nothing about speech as judges. Students, businessmen and anyone else who is interested are welcome."

Dates, times and events for which judges are needed are:

Saturday--5-6 p.m., impromptu speaking, oral interpretation and Lincoln-Douglas debate; 6:30-7:30 p.m., persuasive and expository speaking and Lincoln-Douglas debate.

Sunday--9-10 a.m., debate; 10:30-11:30 a.m., impromptu speaking, oral interpretation and Lincoln-Douglas debate; 12:30-1:30 p.m., debate; 3:30-4:30 p.m., debate; 5-6 p.m., finals in individual events and Lincoln-Douglas debate.

Those interested in judging any of the events may phone Crites at 243-4463.

The UM Debate and Oratory Association will host the tournament.
