JAMES SCHAEFER RECEIVES AWARD
FOR LECTURESHIP IN INDIA

MISSOULA--

Dr. James M. Schaefer, an assistant professor in the University of Montana Department of Anthropology, has been awarded a visiting lectureship to India under the Senior Fulbright-Hays Program.

Schaefer will lecture on cultural anthropological topics, including comparative research methodology, at Sri Venkateswara University in Tirupati, Andra Pradesh in southern India from September 1974 to May 1975.

Besides being author and editor of two books, Schaefer has published a dozen articles in books and professional anthropological journals. Schaefer received his bachelor's degree in 1966 at UM. The State University of New York at Buffalo awarded two degrees to him--the master's in 1970 and doctorate in 1973.

Schaefer will be accompanied to India by his wife, Margaret, and two sons.
