Central Board Minutes
November 11, 1952

(Meetings take place at 4 p.m. every Thursday in the Student Union Eloise Knowles Room and are open to the public.)

The meeting was called to order by Danny Lambros, and minutes from the previous meeting were read and approved.

Cameron read the following recommendation from Budget and Finance Committee: "We recommend payment of the bill (to the amount of $31.50) that was accrued from the purchase of 500 student activity interest cards. In return for this payment, the Office of the Dean of Men promises to assume the cost of printing an additional 2,000 cards of a similar nature." Cameron explained that the Office of the Dean of Men had originally promised to pay for the first 500 cards, but it was unable to officially do so because of a mix-up resulting in the printing of the cards without union labels. He then moved that the recommendation be accepted, and Shanahan seconded. Discussion followed; and it was reported that the additional cards would be filled out by all students winter quarter, would be filed in the ASMSU office, and would be available to all. The motion then carried, with one voting against.

The next recommendation made by Cameron was as follows: "We recommend that the sum of $24.59 be turned over to ASMSU General Fund. This is the exact sum of the sales of the green beanies at the football game November 1, 1952, Saturday afternoon. These beanies were originally bought in 1950 and are the property of ASMSU, being paid for from the General Fund. The General Fund accrued a loss on this project, so we feel that it is only logical to re-imburse this fund to the extent of the sales." After some heated discussion during which Henne declared that Lambros had promised the money to Traditions Board and Jones spoke out for not giving the money to Traditions Board, Cameron suddenly reversed his stand and moved that the money be given to Traditions Board, Jones seconded, and the motion was carried. It seems that the previous recommendation had been arranged as a joke on the unsuspecting Lambros. The selling of beanies had originally been a Traditions Board project, and Lambros had promised the $24.59 to Traditions Board to pay for expenses for the second painting of the M — expenses not arranged for in their budget.

Leuthold reported that Publicity-Travel Committee had decided to pay $52 to the debate squad for partial expenses for visiting fifteen high schools. He also reported that Keith Terrell is in charge of getting MSU student to visit various high school throughout the state to publicize MSU during the Christmas holidays.

Henne reported that a freshman rally committee is being formed to plan ways of increasing school spirit and pep for games.

Burnell reported on publicity for the Les Brown Dance, November 25. It was reported that a number of complaints have been received concerning the plastering of advertisements on car windows. Burnell said that he had not known about or sanctioned such action before it was done, that he felt that such action was not right, and that he would see that no more such stickers would be put on car windows.

Jones moved that the recommendation from Publications Board brought up the week before allowing Theta Sigma Phi to put out basketball programs be accepted. Lambros said that permission had already been granted by Athletic Board and that Central Board approval was not necessary.

The possibility of changing the meeting time of Central Board was discussed, as Coppedge can't meet at 4 o'clock this quarter or next. No conclusion was reached.

Lambros reported on the Tuesday Athletic Board meeting and said that the board had voted to give $600 to the ski team — the money to come from whichever sports that could best afford to be cut (perhaps swimming).

Cameron suggested that the secretary write a note to the band and twirlers (by way of Mr. Gray) congratulating them on their excellent performance at the University of Idaho.

Iler suggested that AS SU start an activities guidance committee to perhaps replace Gripe Board. She said she learned about such committee at a recent AWS convention. This committee could be set up to plan a yearly activities calendar, coordinate activities, and assist those wanting to get into activities and those wanting helpers and participants in their activities. She said that she felt too small a group does most of the planning and participating here now, and she was for getting more non-active students interested in and participating in more activities.

Leuthold said he would not be for a system that would limit the activities of any one person. Iler said we already have such a system here which restricts the number of main offices, though not necessarily the number of all offices. Such a plan could be continued. Henne said that she didn't think such a committee should replace Gripe Board — as both are good.

Wunderlich emphasized that it is good to get more students in activities, where they can learn the skills of following, leading, and cooperating — skills which are so beneficial out of college, too. He said that he felt such a program would also make easier the keeping of personality placement records and would help in the filling out of job references.

Being no further business, the meeting was then adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Mary Joan Tascher
