SATURDAY AT KO RODEO GROUNDS, MISSOULA

MISSOULA--

The Program Council of the Associated Students of the University of Montana (ASUM) will sponsor the "Back To It No. 1 Kegger and Sky Fair" Saturday, Sept. 28, at the KO Rodeo Grounds on upper Miller Creek Road, Missoula.

The ASUM Program Council has ordered 8,000 gallons of beer for the event. A helium balloon and more than a dozen hang-glider kites will be used during the kegger and sky fair. Musical entertainment during the kegger will feature the Mission Mountain Woodband, the Butts Band and Folk Singer David Pomeranz.

Admission will be $4 for UM students with identification and $5 for the general public.

Beer will be distributed beginning at 1 p.m. Saturday. Music will start at 2 p.m.

Commenting on the project, Clark W. Hanson, Sidney, chairman of the University Liquid Assets Corporation, said, "University Liquid Assets Corporation will receive 28 percent of Saturday's kegger profits for furtherance of book purchases for the UM Library."

The University Liquid Assets Corporation has sponsored several spring keggers to raise funds for the purchase of books for the UM Library.
