$14,662 IN INDIAN HEALTH SCHOLARSHIPS
AVAILABLE AT UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

MISSOULA--

A total of $14,662 in scholarships has been made available for Indian students who are sophomores or above at the University of Montana in Missoula and who are majoring in health career areas.

Marjorie Bear Don't Walk, Hot Springs, a member of the Flathead Tribe, who is project director of the Indian Careers in Health Program at UM, said the Educational Foundation of America, a private foundation, contributed the funds for the awards.

Bear Don't Walk said scholarship preference will be given to applicants who are members of the Indian Health Society, an organization sponsored by the Kyi-Yo Indian Club at the University.

The Indian Health Advisory Board at UM, composed of University students, staff members and community residents, will screen applications to determine scholarship recipients and the amounts of the respective awards.

Scholarship applications are available at Bear Don't Walk's office, 626 Eddy Ave., Missoula, Mt. 59801.
