Some 500 high school cross country runners, representing 15 schools, will be in Missoula Saturday to compete in the annual University of Montana Invitational meet.

The meet, which includes novice and varsity competition for boy's and girl's teams, will be run at the University Golf Course. Members of the University of Montana track team put on the meet.

Joe Epler, assistant UM track coach, will serve as Meet Director.

The girl's novice race is scheduled for 10 a.m., and will be followed by the girl's varsity race at 10:30, the boy's novice race at 11 and the boy's varsity race at 11:30 a.m.
