17 NIGHT COURSES HAVE OPENINGS AT UM

MISSOULA--

There are openings in 17 night courses being offered fall quarter by the University of Montana Center for Continuing Education and Summer Programs (CCESP), Cinda Purdy, administrative assistant for the center, has announced. Most of the courses for Missoula area residents are offered one night a week until Dec. 20.

Enrollment fees are $21 per credit hour, or $10.50 per hour for nonparticipating class auditors enrolling without credit. The departmental offerings include business administration, education, English, health, home economics, liberal arts, music, pharmacy, political science and psychology.

Additional information may be obtained by phoning the Center for Continuing Education, 243-2900.
