MISSOULA--

The Utah Symphony Orchestra, University of Montana Jazz Workshop and the popular singer and guitarist Dave Loggins will perform during the 1974 UM Homecoming activities Friday and Saturday, Oct. 11-12.

Under the direction of Conductor Maurice Abravanel, the Utah Symphony will present its concert at 8 p.m. Friday, Oct. 11, in the University Theater. All the seats are reserved and may be purchased for either $3.50 or $4.50 at the University Center Ticket Office, Team Electronics, the Missoula Mercantile Record Shop and at the theater box office before the performance.

The UM Jazz Workshop, under the direction of Lance Boyd, UM music instructor, will present a pop concert with Loggins and two accompanying guitarists at 8 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 12, in the UC Ballroom. Tickets, which are $2.75 for UM students and $3.75 for the general public, may be purchased at the UC Ticket Office, Team Electronics, the Mercantile Record Shop in Missoula, and at Yer Earth Music in Hamilton.

Both concerts are sponsored by the Program Council of the Associated Students of UM in conjunction with other UM Homecoming activities.

Boyd said the Jazz Workshop's selections Saturday night will include "Mercy, Mercy, Mercy," "Give It One" and "Country Road."

Loggins has had several hit recordings, including "Pieces of April" and "Please Come to Boston."
