MISSOULA--

The eighth in a statewide series of forums on the review of local government will be held Wednesday, Oct. 23, at 7:30 p.m. in the Bozeman Senior High School Cafeteria.

Wednesday's forum, entitled "Government by The People: A Community Hall Meeting," is designed to promote awareness of the issues involved in local government review and to foster dialogue among citizens regarding the choices affecting the future of local governments in Gallatin County.

The panel discussion will bring together several authorities on local government. Dr. Roland Renne, president emeritus of Montana State University, Bozeman, will join Dr. Frank Bryan, a MSU political science professor, in a discussion of the alternative forms of local government which may be provided by the 1975 session of the State Legislature.

Harold Fryslie, Bozeman city manager, and Walter Sales, Gallatin County Commissioner, will discuss review from the perspective of local officials. Dorothy Eck, Helena, state-local coordinator, and Ben Berg, Bozeman city attorney, will discuss the background of voter review of local government from the State Constitutional Convention.

Dr. Kenneth Bryson, Bozeman, head of the MSU Department of Speech Communication, will be panel moderator. The forum will be introduced by a slide show presentation produced by Mark K. Meloy, Helena, a graduate student in political science at the University of Montana, Missoula.

The forum series, sponsored by the University of Montana Bureau of Government Research, is funded by the Montana Committee for the Humanities, an organization which is headquartered at UM.

Sandy Stroup, Bozeman League of Women Voters, is chairperson of the Bozeman forum. The public is encouraged to attend the forum and direct questions to the panel of discussants.
