MISSOULA--

A total of $33,600 in financial aid has been awarded to 61 University of Montana law students for the 1974-75 academic year, according to Dean Robert E. Sullivan.

Sullivan said the bulk of the aid was in the form of $500 scholarships and fee waivers provided by donors from all areas of Montana and several out-of-state contributors.

"In a time of increasing costs and increasing need by UM law students, the support provided by the donors of these scholarships is especially noteworthy," Sullivan said, adding that anyone interested in the scholarship program should contact the UM law school.

The scholarships range in value from $75 honorary scholarships recognizing scholastic achievement to $500. Six UM students also received law assistantships of $1,200 each.
