'DANCEMONTANA' TO PERFORM WEDNESDAY
AT REHABILITATION CENTER

MISSOULA--

"DanceMontana," a group of six dancers from the University of Montana supported in part by a grant from the Montana Arts Council (MAC), an agency of state government, will present the third in a series of lectures and dance demonstrations as a public service at 1 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 12, at the Missoula Crippled Children and Adult's Rehabilitation Center, Ft. Missoula.

Members of "danceMontana" include Connie Bess Snyder; Nancy Jean Brooks, an assistant professor of drama in the UM Dance Division; Kata Langworthy, "danceMontana" managing director; Ray Spooner; Catherine Paine, and Peter Aune.

Commenting on "danceMontana," David E. Nelson, MAC executive director, said: "It is encouraging to see a group of young people with this kind of commitment and enthusiasm working toward establishment of a modern dance company. This is not an easy endeavor, therefore 'danceMontana' is in need of public and private support to further the cause of dance in Montana."
