FRANK LLOYD WRIGHT EXHIBIT
TO BE DISPLAYED IN CENTER GALLERY

MISSOULA--

The University Center Gallery at the University of Montana will display an exhibit of selected works from famed architect Frank Lloyd Wright beginning Monday, Feb. 17, Gregg Luginbuhl, Art Gallery coordinator, has announced. The exhibit will continue through Feb. 28.

The exhibit includes 31 photomurals prepared from original drawings from the archives of the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation in Arizona, along with 16 color lithographs of sketches and perspectives from the private collection of Mrs. Wright, Luginbuhl said.

In addition, the exhibit will feature seven pieces of furniture constructed from original designs by Wright and personal photographs of Wright and his family.

The exhibit, compiled by Delton Ludwig and Sam Thomas, Billings architects, has been made available through the Yellowstone Art Center of Billings and the Western Association of Art Museums.

Gallery hours for the two-week display at UM will be from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. weekdays and 7-9 p.m. Sunday through Thursday. An attendant will be on duty during those hours, Luginbuhl added.
