ASUM GENERAL ELECTIONS
ARE WEDNESDAY, MARCH 5

MISSOULA--

The Associated Students of the University of Montana (ASUM) will hold student elections on campus Wednesday, March 5.

Students who have paid winter quarter activity fees are eligible to vote at any of five polling places from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. Polling places will be located in the Music Building; Liberal Arts Building; Food Service in the Lodge; the University Center Mall, and the Science Complex.

Five teams of students, including two write-ins, are running for the posts of president and vice president. A business manager and Store Board delegate also will be elected, and a total of 17 students will be elected to positions on Central Board, the student governing body of ASUM.
