WOMEN'S MOVEMENT PRESENTATION
IS THURSDAY AT UNIVERSITY

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana Women's Resource Center will present an informal program on the women's movement at 7 p.m. Thursday, March 13, in the University Center Lounge.

Included in the free public program will be a lecture entitled "Women," covering the movement's history, legislation and other major issues, including differing points of view among women and the impact of the women's movement on interpersonal relationships.

Speakers at Thursday's program will include Judy Smith, Women's Resource Center coordinator at UM, and Marcia Hogan and Deirdre Caughlan, WRC members.

The University discussion is one of many nationwide and international events scheduled this year in recognition of 1975 as the International Year of Women. A question-answer session will follow Thursday's program. Refreshments will be served. The University Center Courses Program is sponsoring the event.
