ART FAIR POSTPONED UNTIL JUNE 6
AT UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

MISSOULA--

The second spring art fair at the University of Montana, scheduled Thursday and Friday, May 8-9, has been postponed until June 6 to enable artists participating in the Missoula Festival of the Arts this month to prepare materials for the art fair. The art fair had been planned in conjunction with the University Liquid Assets Corporation's Kegger Benefit, scheduled from 11 a.m. to dusk Saturday, May 10, at the K-0 Rodeo Grounds on Upper Miller Creek Road.

Artists will sell their artworks and handicraft from 10 a.m.-7 p.m. June 6 in the mall area between the UM Library and University Center (UC). Entertainment and a barbecue are tentatively scheduled in conjunction with the June 6 art fair.

Those interested in participating in the art fair may sign up in the UC Scheduling Office. Fees for renting tables will be $1 for students and $3 for nonstudents. Artists already signed up for this week's art fair will not have to re-register for the June 6 art fair. Questions may be directed to the scheduling office, phone 243-4113.

The art fairs are sponsored by UC Programming Services.
