ANNE CAREY TO SING WEDNESDAY
AT MISSOULA CITY BAND CONCERT

MISSOULA--

Mezzo-soprano Anne Carey of Missoula will sing "Panis Angelicus" by Cesar Franck and "Sly Heart At Thy Sweet Voice" by Camille Saint-Saens as guest soloist at the Missoula City Band Concert at 8:15 p.m. Wednesday, July 30, at Bonner Park. The program is open to the public without charge.

Alex M. Stepanzoff, chairman of the University of Montana (UM) Local Executive Board, is City Band director.

Carey, a private voice teacher who is director of the two youth groups at the local First Presbyterian Church, is past-president of the UM Women's Association and is a member of the Missoula Civic Chorale.

She created the parts of Lady Larkin in "Once Upon a Mattress" and Lucy Brown in the "Three Penny Opera" for the Nomad Theater in Boulder, Colo., a private theater which employs semiprofessional and professional talents in the Denver-Boulder area. She also has done the part of Letitia from "The Old Maid and the Thief" in Pueblo, Colo., for the Sun City Lyric Theater.

As a student at the University of Colorado, Carey, who has been studying with John Lester, emeritus professor of music at UM, sang the parts of Cleo in the production of "Most Happy Fella" and Sarah Brown in "Guys and Dolls." She portrayed the parts of Aldonza in "The Man of La Mancha"; Lola in "Damn Yankees," and Lucy Brown for the second time in "Three Penny Opera" for Missoula audiences.

Carey received her bachelor of music education degree at the University of Colorado Music College, where she studied voice with the late Danish tenor Aksel Schiotz and acquired teaching skills from Dr. Sally Monsour.
