AMERICAN LABOR UNION COURSE
STARTS TUESDAY AT SENTINEL

MISSOULA--

John Whiston, Missoula, who has completed requirements for a bachelor of arts degree at the University of Montana, will teach a night course entitled "History of the American Labor Union" beginning Tuesday, Oct. 7, at Missoula Sentinel High School. The course is offered through the UM Center for Continuing Education and Summer Programs (CCESP).

The initial class meeting will be from 7:30-9:30 p.m. Tuesday in room 249 at Sentinel. Those who take the course for two academic credits will pay a fee of $42, and class auditors, who receive no credit, will be charged $21. The course will continue each Tuesday night through Dec. 9. Those interested may register at the first class meeting.

Whiston, who has done graduate in American history, will divide class time evenly between lectures and discussions. The lectures will provide a historical perspective and introduce the major issues facing the laborer and the labor union movement. Discussions, revolving around specific incidents and issues, will be based on contemporary accounts.

The course has been endorsed by the Missoula County Central Trades and Labor Council, A.F.L.C.I.O.

Additional information may be obtained by phoning Cinda Purdy, administrative assistant in the CCESP office, 243-2900.

Whiston, who is employed at a local factory, is a member of the Lumber and Sawmill Workers, Local 2685.
