FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Sally Neath, Montana State University Radio-Television senior from Helena has been awarded a travel grant to attend the International Radio and Television College Conference April 8 and 9 in New York City. The award was announced by Claude Barrere, executive director of the IRTS Foundation.

The two-day conference features sessions about broadcast operations, advertising, news and public affairs, the role of the college radio station, women in the broadcasting world, and a demonstration of television production effects.
