ART CLASSES FOR YOUTH
TO START JAN. 16 AT UM

MISSOULA --

Preschool through high-school age students in Missoula and vicinity are invited to participate beginning Jan. 16 in the Saturday art classes offered by the University of Montana Department of Art.

During the eight-week program, students will be able to explore a variety of media, including sculpture, photography, drawing, painting, print making, film making, music, drama and creative writing.

A special section will be offered for advanced students.

The classes, conducted in the UM Fine Arts Building from 9:30-11:30 a.m. each Saturday, will be under the direction of Richard B. Reinholtz, an associate professor of art at UM and a number of UM art students.

A $4 fee per student will cover all expenses.

Further information may be obtained from the UM Department of Art by phoning 243-4181
or by phoning Reinholtz at 243-2781.
