MISSOULA--

Montana's Cubs face rematches with teams with revenge in mind this weekend in the Adams Field House at 6 p.m.

The Cubs defeated the Gonzaga Bullpups, 79-72, last month in Spokane and last weekend edged Eastern Washington Jayvees, 89-87, in Cheney.

Saturday night the Cubs host the Bullpups and Monday night the Eastern Washington Jayvees.

Coach Jack McWhorter expects two more tight contests this weekend, "They are both good clubs and about our size. I think they will be good games."

McWhorter's Charges have a three game winning streak going for them. Following a 102-97 loss to Montana State, the Cubs have defeated jayvee teams from Carroll, Whitworth and Eastern Washington. The Cub record is 5-7.

Leading the Cubs in scoring is 6-7 center, Cris Anderson from Olympia. Anderson is averaging 16 points per game, followed by Robin Selvig and Scott Hollenbeck with 14 and Kevin Rocheleau with 13. Hollenbeck is the leading Cub rebounder with 88.

McWhorter said Selvig is coming on strong. In the last four games he is averaging 22 points and produced 30 points against Carroll and 23 at Whitworth.
