The University of Montana golfers totalled 389 for 18 holes Monday at the Missoula Country Club defeating Montana State and Western Montana linksmen.

Coach Ron Nord said John Mahoney led the Grizzlies with a 75 over the 18 hole course. He hit 37 on the back nine and totalled 38 on the final holes.

Following Mahoney were Jeff Nord and Skip Koprivica with 77's while Kets Smith and Mike Knaff rounded out the Montana scoring with 80's.

Montana's number two team finished second in the meet with a 412 total. Jim Hill led the second unit with a 79.

Montana State was third in the meet with a 420 and Western Montana totalled 487. Guy Hammerland was the leading Bobcat with an 80 while John Sullivan was the Bulldog's best at 88.

The Grizzlies travel to Billings for the Eastern Montana Invitational Thursday and Friday, Nord concluded.
