THE MONTANA KALMIN

MONTANA STATE UNIVERSITY, MISSOULA, MONTANA

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1936. VOLUME XXXVI. No. 7

A WHIG WANDERS

Now that we've been around this university long enough to feel that we can view the so-called march of events with a friendly, complacent, dignified eye (the description is swiped from Thorne Smith), we have decided to break out with a column. The editor didn't specify, but she did say it had to be interesting. So if you have criticisms or suggestions or anecdotes or what-not, send them in.

Problem number one was what to call it. We remember back two years when all the conservatives were being called Tories and Whigs. When we recall how often we have been disappointed at the failure of theatre ticket prices to go down, and how calmly we now take it, we've decided that we're just a bunch of Whigs, wandering here and there. If you've got some places to go, just tell us and we'll wander over.

We are suddenly reminded that last year Pittsburgh had a flood. We who knew Dr. E. Douglas Branch, who taught English here for a year, wondered what he did when the flood swept through the city where he is now teaching. Dr. Branch is professor of research history at Pittsburgh university. We always hoped he didn't even get wet, because that dry sense of humor should be kept in all its glory. This summer he came to Missoula—"getting away from my hay fever," he said—and told us that he simply parked on the fifteenth floor of some skyscraper. Nice work, Dr. Branch. It was good seeing you again.

Remember H. L. Mencken's remark last spring that if Roosevelt thought he could gain votes by coming out for cannibalism he would start fattening up missionaries in the White House backyard? Well, Louisiana's Reverend Smith would make a splendid chop, Mr. President.

You should have seen Ray Whitcomb when he got back from the hills this summer. He had a beard like old man Blue and his hair was unlike anything ever seen in the air above the earth, the ground beneath or the waters around. His first stop was at a barber shop.

Which reminds us that three ex-ASUM members are on the campus. Jimmy Meyers, 1935-36, is taking law. Grace Johnson, first co-ed to be president of the students (1934) is Student Union secretary, and Kenny Duff, 1934-35, is one of the New York Life's super salesmen.

Two years ago the Billings Broncos defeated Missoula high for the state football championship. After the game, the happy Broncos retired to their hotel rooms to celebrate with their mascots—two ducks all decked out in fine velvet vests, booties and what not. But one of the ducks was gone. It was later revealed that the bewildered fowl spent the night in a dank fraternity house cellar. Three days later, decked in even finer raiment than his purple velvet, he was a fitting centerpiece on a table. To indicate how times do change, one of the fellows who walked off with the mascot recently became the proud father of a very hefty son. That's what reminded us about this duck story.

We think that if Doug Fessenden and Mike Pecarovich had been on the same side of the field Saturday, they probably would have had a nice stroll together. Doug kept stamping back and forth and what Mike was doing would be inadequately described by even such a descriptive verb. By the way, the sports writer for the Spokane Spokesman-Review certainly gave the Grizzlies a hand.

Friday we'll tell you all about our scheme to bring money to the athletic board by utilizing Mount Sentinel. We think you'll be interested.

One-Act Plays Will Portray European Life

Masquers to Present Four Continental Comedies October 29

Practice Underway

French, English, Russian, Austrian Atmosphere In Productions

Continental comedy will be portrayed in a manner characteristic of four different European countries in the one-act plays which are to be presented October 29 by the Montana Masquers.

"Rosalie" by Max Maurey, a modern French playright, is the story of a rather stupid housemaid who unwittingly wins her way in a trying situation with her master and mistress. This one-act play was first presented in the Grand Guignol theatre, Paris, where Max Maurey was once a director.

A very popular curtain raiser in both England and America throughout the nineteenth century, "Box and Cox" by John Madison Morton was first shown at the Royal Lyceum theatre in London in 1847. The plot centers around the clever plan of Mrs. Bouncer, a landlady, to procure double rent for her room. The climax comes when Box and Cox meet each other and Mrs. Bouncer's ruse is discovered.

In a rather melancholy mood Anatol attempts to break off his affair with Mimi, who anticipates his intentions, at "The Farewell Supper." This is one of the seven one-act plays making up "The Affairs of Anatol," written by the late Arthur Schnitzler who was one of the important Viennese authors of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. The tempo of the play is that of a gay Viennese waltz.

Anton Tchekov's "The Anniversary" scoffs at the Russian attempts at dignity and pompousness. The author is better known as one of the great writers of short stories and serious full-length plays such as "Cherry Orchard," "The Three Sisters," and "The Sea Gull." "The Anniversary" is one of a group of one-act plays. Most of Tchekov's work has been connected with the Moscow Art theatre.

Rehearsals are progressing rapidly toward perfection of the plays.

Frosh Literary Club Will Meet Thursday

Members of the freshman literary group will meet with Dr. Lucia B. Mirrieles of the English department, in the Randall apartments, number 38, next Thursday evening at 7:15 o'clock.

Miss Mirrieles read selections from Irving Shaw's "Bury the Dead" at the last session held in the Student Union building.

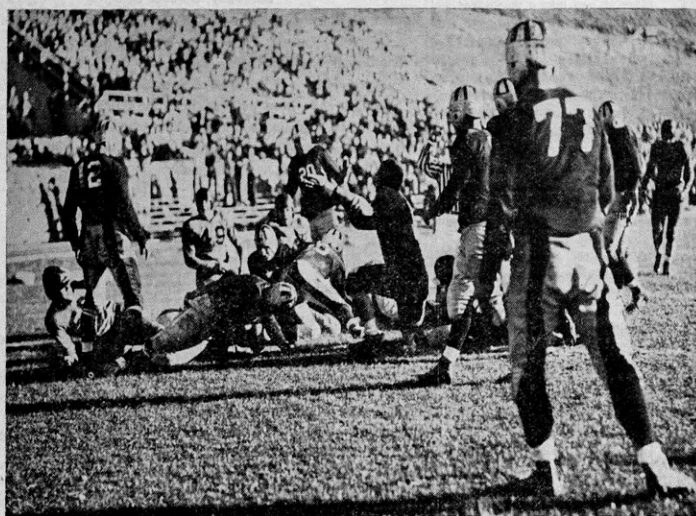

Interfraternity council will meet in the Eloise Knowles room of the Student Union building Tuesday from 7 to 8 o'clock.

Butte Good-Will Delegation To Be Here for Convocation

Business Men Will Extend Hospitality to Students Attending Game

Butte's good-will delegation will be featured Thursday at the ASUM convocation for the Grizzly-Bobcat football game. This group of business men will extend hospitality on behalf of the city of Butte to the university students attending the Grizzly-Bobcat game Saturday.

The delegation will give 30 minutes of novelty singing, vocal solos, accordion numbers, quartet singing and snappy novelty stunts.

Grizzlies Triumph

Bobcat Game Tickets To Be Sold on Special Train and in Butte

University Rooting Section to Be in West Bleachers of Clark Park; Fessenden Says Grizzlies Will Be at Full Strength

Tickets for the Grizzly-Bobcat game to be played Saturday in Butte will be available to students on the special train and in Butte at the Finlen hotel and Clark park, it was announced yesterday. Students must present their ASUM activity tickets when obtaining game tickets, and again at the gate for identification before being admitted to the game.

The university rooting section will be in the west bleachers of the park, and all seats are reserved. Students are urged to get their tickets either on the train or hotel, as the delay in procuring them at the park will make them late for the game.

The special train will leave from the Northern Pacific station at 7:45 o'clock Saturday morning, and will arrive in Butte about 10:45 o'clock. Tickets for the special will be on sale in the Students' store, Thursday and Friday from 10 to 12 o'clock and 1:30 to 4 o'clock. The price is $2.40, round trip, the lowest rate ever made.

Students must leave on the special to take advantage of this offer, but may return on the same ticket through Sunday afternoon.

Few Injuries

"The Grizzlies will be at full strength for the first time this season when they meet the Bobcats at Butte next Saturday," Doug Fessenden said yesterday.

Last Saturday when the Grizzlies played Gonzaga, almost every man in the backfield had an injury or a bruise. Tommy Rolston, who was not in condition to play against the Bulldogs, will more than likely see action against the Cats. Milt Popovich, who played a "bang-up" game in spite of an infected elbow, will be in better condition than he has previously this season.

No serious injuries were suffered against the "Zags" and Rolfe Lundberg, Bill Lazetich, Cliff Olson, Fred Jenkin and Bill Matasovic will have a week to recover from bruises and colds suffered before the Gonzaga game.

Bobcats Strong

So far this season the Bobcats have lost to Utah State, 12-0; Brigham Young, 19-0, and Greeley State 13-0. They have won one game, from Colorado college by a score of 6-3.

Reports come from Bozeman saying that the college has a light but scrappy team. Stebbins and Oliver are gathering honors as two of the best ends in the Rocky Mountain conference and will probably be dangerous as pass receivers.

In the starting line-up against Colorado college the Bobcats used seven lettermen, one of them, Chuck Strout, being a former state university player. He played on the Cub squad in 1932.

Henrikson Tests Freshman Speech

New Students Must Visit Clinic By November 1

Freshmen who have not reported to Dr. E. H. Henrikson's speech clinic must do so before November 1, he announced yesterday.

"All freshmen must consult with me sometime this year and it is to their advantage to do it now. The remainder of the freshmen will have to see me at the beginning of winter quarter," stated Dr. Henrikson.

Dr. Henrikson says that results of the tests are now being compiled and students interested in this project may soon see the records.

NOTICE

The Economics club will hold a meeting tomorrow at 4 o'clock in the large meeting room at the Student Union building. The topic to be discussed is "Social Science Education in Secondary Schools of Montana."

Davis to Speak At Republican Mass Meeting

Political Program Will Feature Addresses by Candidates For State Offices

David W. Davis, former governor of Idaho and nationally recognized authority on reclamation, will be the featured speaker at a Republican rally to be held in the Student Union auditorium Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock.

Several Republican candidates for state offices are also on the program.

Davis was assistant secretary of Interior under Herbert Hoover and later served as confidential adviser to Secretary of Interior Hyde during the Hoover administration. He served several years as United States commissioner of reclamation and was, for a time, financial adviser of the Bureau of Reclamation.

He has served two terms as governor of Idaho. He was president of the Idaho Bankers' association for several years and during the war was unanimously elected director of the Idaho war finance drive.

Excavation Work Is Now Complete

Concrete for Journalism Building Will Be Poured Soon

Completion of the excavation for the foundation has marked the first step in the erection of the new journalism building. Concrete pourers will begin their work as soon as the foundation molds are put into place.

Foreman of excavation, T. R. Gans, Great Falls, said today that due to the rocky nature of the excavation walls, considerable time has been lost. "The walls continually slide in on our footings and necessitate more work in digging out," he said.

The footings, however, are now in place. As soon as the proper materials for concrete mixing are obtained and the molds are put in place the concrete foundation will be poured.

Butte Good-Will Delegation To Be Here for Convocation

This program is sponsored annually by the Butte Commercial club for university students.

"Montana students owe it to their football squad to attend a convocation in their honor," stated ASUM president, Ray Whitcomb, Baldwin Park, Cal., yesterday. "Besides that they will miss one of the best entertainments of the year if they don't attend the convocation this Thursday when the Butte delegation will appear," he said.

Several fraternity and sorority houses have signified that they will co-operate with ASUM in requiring compulsory attendance of members at convocations.

Dr. Simmons Tells Barbs Of Expedition

"Devils Island" Is Subject Of President's Address To Independents

Six hundred murderers on a tiny island 189 miles off the coast of South America were the companions of President George Finlay Simmons, while his expedition was collecting scientific data in the South Sea Islands. Only three prisoners had ever escaped from this "Devil's Island" of the Brazilian government, said President Simmons in a talk on the "Isle of Crooked Men," at a mass meeting of the Independent students Monday evening.

The scientific expedition with which Dr. Simmons came to the island was collecting fish and bird specimens and taking pictures. A number of species of birds and animals are found nowhere else in the world.

Enjoyable entertainment for Independent members will be the purpose of the Independent mass meetings in the future, said Robert Ball, chairman of the meetings board. Athletic teams and other outside activities will be organized. Business will be confined strictly to council meetings, it was announced.

Josephine Buergey, Great Falls, entertained with a vocal solo, "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life."

Mass meetings will be held on alternate Monday nights in the future.

Lecture Tickets May Be Obtained Next Wednesday

Activity Cards to Be Exchanged For Admission to Concert Presenting Spaeth

Student activity tickets may be exchanged for the regular Community Concert admission tickets, Gordon Hickman, chairman of the university outside entertainment committee, has announced. This exchange for admittance to the lecture by Dr. Sigmund Spaeth, first on the community concert series of programs, may be made beginning Wednesday, October 21 until noon Monday, October 25 at the Student Union building office.

Dr. Spaeth, noted lecturer and musician, who spoke before the last summer school session, is known as the "Tune Detective" because of his vast knowledge of the origin of music pieces. He has been interested in music during the major part of his life, having composed several popular songs and ballads. Dr. Spaeth has been connected with the music departments of several of the nation's leading magazines and newspapers and was at one time a radio announcer.

He will illustrate his lecture with the piano and will give a brief summary of the work done by the artists who will follow him on the program.

Democratic Club Adopts Program Of Five Points

Thirty-five Members of Student Group Vote on Platform At Political Meeting

Five points were set forth as the platform of the university branch of the Young Democrats club at their last meeting.

The points adopted are: One, to get in touch with all voters at the university and assist them in getting absentee ballots and arrange for a notary to attest the affidavits.

Two, to bring Roy Ayers, candidate for governor, to address the university branch of the Young Democrats.

Three, to organize Young Democratic clubs in all state institutions of higher learning.

Four, to support all alumni of the university who are candidates for office, so that through these friends of the school, larger appropriations for the university may be secured.

Five, to offer the services of able speakers from the university to county and state Democratic committees.

The organization now has thirty-five members, and John C. Harrison, Harlowton, has been elected president; Gordon Hoven, Plentywood, vice-president; Peggy Holmes, Helena, second vice-president in charge of women's organization, and Joe Spenker, San Francisco, secretary-treasurer.

In commenting on the organization's purpose, Harrison stated, "The present administration has been very good to the university. We now have one of the finest Student Union buildings in the country, due to a PWA loan, and we shall soon have an adequate building to house the school of journalism with funds obtained from the same source. Hundreds of our students would not be able to stay in school if it was not for the assistance they receive from the NYA."

The group will meet at 8 o'clock tonight on the second floor of the law building.

Co-eds Must Obtain Consent for Trip

Parents' Permission Is Required For Overnight Stay

Women students who plan to stay in Butte with relatives or friends next Saturday for the Grizzly-Bobcat game must present letters from Butte hostesses as well as written permission from parents, Acting Dean Mary Elrod Ferguson announced yesterday.

Students who are driving in cars must have parents' consent. No woman will be allowed to stay overnight in a hotel or public rooming house.

Parents' permission is not required for women who are going on the special train, but permission cards must be filled out by them and filed in the office of the Dean of Women.

Slide Lectures Will Explain Bird Habits

Vernon Marsh to Discuss Life of Cinnamon Teal At Friday Meeting

University Bird club members will meet Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in room 307 of the Natural Science building. Vernon L. Marsh will speak of the life history of the Cinnamon Teal and give a slide talk on birds of the eastern Montana prairies. Sunday the group will hike up the Rattlesnake.

This is one of a series of nine lectures on various aspects of bird life to be given during the school year. A part of each program will deal extensively with the economic importance and management of various species. The club was organized last year by Dr. Simmons and Dr. Castle. A large number of students showed constant enthusiasm throughout the year.

Theodore J. Walker, president of the club, has been conducting supervised field trips on week-ends during the past two years. It has been the aim of these field trips to acquaint the party with the ecological factors governing the distribution of different species and at the same time study the individual bird in its natural environment. Particular stress has been placed upon field marking of birds. Last Sunday, members hiked to the Frenchtown waterfowl refuge.

Students to Cast Ballots in Straw Vote This Week

Polling in Student Union Building Will Open Today; Four Names on List

Students will have an opportunity to express their presidential preferences in a straw vote being conducted today and tomorrow by the Montana Kaimin. Polling will be from 3 to 5 o'clock today and 10 to 5 o'clock Wednesday, in the lobby between the fountain and book store in the Student Union building.

Names of four candidates—Landon, Roosevelt, Thomas and Lemke are on the ballot and spaces are provided for the voters to tell whether they are men or women, and whether or not they are employed by the NYA.

The sponsors of the poll expect a total of more than 1,500 votes to be cast, due to the campus interest shown in the campaign. In the 1932 straw balloting nearly 63 per cent of the student body voted.

The Missoula Business and Professional Women's club will give a style show in the Student Union auditorium this evening. Shows will begin at 7:30 and 9 o'clock.

Tom Wigal, former editor of the Montana Kaimin, was a campus visitor Sunday. He is employed by the Montana Standard.

Grizzly Fans Will Stage Butte Rally

University Rooters Meet At Finlen Hotel For Parade

All Montana students attending the Grizzly-Bobcat game Saturday are to meet at the Finlen hotel immediately following the arrival of the "special" in Butte, to organize a rally. Transportation will be provided from the depot to the hotel.

Traditions committee has made plans for the parade to include the university band, Spurs and Bear Paws. University students are requested to attend the game and to participate in the rally.

About fourteen hundred students were present at the rally before the Gonzaga-Montana game Friday evening. In commenting upon the school spirit, Ray Whitcomb, president of ASUM, yesterday stated, "I appreciate the co-operation given by university students and the various houses. School spirit has increased considerably. Just keep the spirit up and the old bell will continue to ring."

CONGRATULATIONS

The battling Grizzlies have proved to Montana's sport enthusiasts that they can play real football. From the time the whistle blew for the first kick-off Saturday afternoon until the gun was fired to end the game, fans witnessed a grid battle royal. It was anybody's game—consistently brilliant playing triumphed. For once, the grippers didn't have anything to yip about!

To Coach "Doug" Fessenden and the entire football squad, which has really come through with the "dope," the Kaimin extends heartiest congratulations. Last year we heard about our new deal in football, and unlike so many of our other new deals on the campus—it is materializing.

In the past, a rather lackadaisical attitude has prevailed among university students regarding athletics. The general feeling was that Montana couldn't win a game, so they might as well lose gracefully. To quote a recent football scout who watched the Grizzlies display their grid prowess, "Montana has arrived." This calls for support from the student body. Our football prospects are better now than ever before—we can win. Let's do our part by giving the team and Coach Fessenden all of the encouragement possible. Let them know that the student body is backing them. Root for the Grizzlies, attend the rallies and give them "lung support" that can't be rivaled!

The Montana Jinx was properly slaughtered Saturday—we don't want to exhumate it.

CAST YOUR VOTE

As the national campaign becomes more and more heated and betting and speculation becomes heavier, it behooves the Kaimin to conduct a campus poll. Everyone wants to know the outcome of the election ahead of time. Everyone is getting more and more impatient.

The answer will only be forthcoming after November 3. How the campus feels politically is something that can be determined now—by means of a straw vote.

On other campuses throughout the country polls are being conducted. Princeton is sponsoring a straw vote on every campus in the country. The results of this poll will be published about the first of November.

Beginning today, a ballot box will be placed in the lower hall of the Student Union building. Ballots will be given to all students. Precautions have been taken to prevent stuffing.

How many students will vote? How many are interested or willing enough to assert their beliefs? Will a representative number cast ballots?

The lack of interest among the students in political affairs has been noted in the past. This does not speak well for the student body. Citizenship is based on interest. Indifference on the part of the voting population can be blamed for most of the corruption of public offices and trusts.

Cast your ballot in the Kaimin straw vote.

WILL WOMEN REVERT?

Aristotle classed woman as an arrested development, and explained her as nature's failure to create a man. She belonged with slaves as naturally subordinate, and quite unworthy of participation in public affairs.

This was also the view of Jehovah, who grouped wives and mothers with cattle and real estate in the last of the commandments, which, it was rumored, he handed down to Moses. Jehovah had been made in the image of the Jews, who, like any war-like people, looked upon woman as a misfortune and a necessary evil.

Even the feminist, Plato, thanked God that he had been born a man.

Came the dawn of woman's suffrage! And now election years see the public servant biting his fingernails and casting fearful eyes toward his weaker sisters of the voting female populace.

Women, with their comparatively newly acquired ballots, are the targets of considerable political bally-hoo. They are being showered with sentiment and are urged to consider their children—and the babes of their children's children—and to vote for Roosevelt or Landon.

The women's vote, because it is new, is a source of much bafflement to the professional politicians, most of whom seem to feel that the way to a woman's vote is through her heart.

Generations of women, trained in sentimentality, have made it difficult for a woman to vote intelligently. One of the great questions of this election is whether woman will revert to type, or prove herself the emancipated modern.

INCREASED COLLEGE ENROLLMENT

Total college enrollment throughout the United States shows an increase of 5 per cent over last year's figures. Columbia university in New York City reports an increase from 33,561 students to 36,500. New York university's registration was augmented by 2,000 students and the College of the City of New York jumped from 22,182 to 23,000.

University of California records an increase from 12,967 to 14,051, and the University of Minnesota from 13,300 to 13,800.

Obviously more students are attending higher educational institutions this year than ever before. Why this sudden jump?

Primarily, the increased college enrollment indicates depression recovery. There was a decided slump in registration in college institutions during the most severe of the depression years. Enrollment increase this year for women also substantiates the arguments; during the depth of the depression men were given preference by parents so far as educational facilities were concerned.

This year's record-breaking attendance is also a reflection of the increasing interest youth has been taking in education for the past 20 years. In 1910 approximately 3 1/4 per cent of college-age persons continued education after high school graduation. Last year's figures show a rise to 16 per cent in the proportion. The depression despite the retardation it necessitated intensified this growing interest of Americans in higher education.

A third factor which has added students to college registrations is the financial support which the National Youth Administration is offering. Approximately 171,000 college enrollees were included on the NYA payroll last year, and even more are receiving aid this year.

A trend toward practical rather than abstract studies is pronounced. Fine arts, philosophy, the classical languages are being replaced on college curricula by courses which will increase the student's possibilities for a position after graduation.

ORGANIZED CHEERING

Last week we condoned the fact that Grizzly rooters spent half of their time cheering the Idaho Tigers—and now we contend that they might have shown the Gonzaga Bulldogs just a little courtesy by giving them more than one yell. We don't expect to cheer for our opponents as often as for our own team, but we could at least remember our manners in regard to a visiting team. Gonzaga fans noticed this, and made remarks about Montana's unsportsman-like attitude. In the future, let's try and hit that happy medium which will keep us above our visitors' reproach.

The Yell Duke and cheer leaders should be given credit for attempting to organize cheering—some of their ideas have worked out very well, but there is plenty of room for improvement. This cannot be accomplished without the co-operation of the entire student body. There is no reason why it should not be done.

It is very evident that the students do not know the yells, and the result is bringing criticism from spectators. On other university campuses, practice cheering sessions are held at the beginning of the school year to instruct students in organized yelling. Why isn't something of a similar nature done here? The student body should be capable of learning more than three or four yells!

Entertainment between the halves of games is another little thing which needs a tonic. We all enjoy watching the Grizzly band parade, but there are several dull minutes that could very easily be livened up, when they are finished with their part of the program.

What are the campus leaders going to do about this situation?

Several Japanese have been killed in China, and Japan demands reparations. Nippon's motto seems to be "an upper and lower set for a tooth."—Boston Evening Transcript.

Over in France they've devalued the franc, and here in America the Republicans are trying to devalue Frank.—Boston Evening Transcript.

It may be fun to fiddle around in college, but the fiddler will have to be paid, come examination time.

Pretty soon the election will be over—and what in the world will we have to talk about?

Kaimin Kaleidoscope

Remember that little trick to which we introduced you last week? Well, is it our fault you didn't read it? It was there all the time just longing to be read. The idea is, you take a maple-leaf and hold the stem in your mouth and try to tie a knot in the stem. And sure enough after a lot of practice you can. Practice makes perfect. This week's trick runs along much the same lines. Wait, keep the knotted leaf in your mouth. All right, now untie it. Aw, knots!

Pulchritudinous Peggy's come to our school to stay, And dazzle all the college boys and chase their blues away. And do the thing Corsette-ly as it's done in good old Butte. With all the high-toned, manner such a statement can impute. So let us stand together; her attractions let us shout, For the Glamour Girl'll get you if you don't watch out!

CROSS-COUNTRY
Cross-country is a noble sport And runners all adore it. But judging from their wild support The students must abhor it.

On any day from two to five No matter what the weather, Such running tools as still survive Go trotting out together.

Around the cinder track they lope, All eyes are surely gathered— Upon the coach's latest hope, But not on runners lathered.

The football men get all the cheers As on their field they practice. The running men rate all the jeers— How sad but true the fact is!

Before they let the runners run (Prepare for such surprises) They even give them extra fun With pleasant exercises.

The runner jerks, the runner bends The runner writhes his muscles. His twisted features he distends— My goodness how he hustles!

At last the exercises close And he is high exhausted; (The student body never knows What effort this has caused!)

Then over hill and dale chugs And boulders cause him sorrow; His running pants are full of bugs, But he'll be back tomorrow!

"Does anybody know a bird named Popovich?" asks Major Norris checking roll. "We're going to have an awful time making a soldier out of that bird," he adds regretfully.

Why must I burn The midnight oil When I have no Desire to toil? And when for work I'm primed to go Why am I at The picture show?

And then there was the frosh R. O. T. C. cadet who complained that his trousers were a little tight under the armpits.

The First Step in Being Collegiate (For Frosh Only)

Proceed to some suitable night bright spot, spend money freely, all the time looking bored, sleep on the foot rail of bar until closing time. The management will usually do the rest (e. g. have a dump truck with a power driven hoist, handy to door transport to transport guests from club to home gutter.) The feature of this service is that the guest is untouched by human hands from club to curb. An address in unobstructed view must be carried for information in transit. A few trips obviates this need of designation of curb. Details at any establishment gratis.

Montana Team Wins Thrilling 6-0 Victory From Bulldog Squad

Popovich and Matasovic Star for Grizzlies Saturday As 6,500 Fans Watch Last Minute Bulldog Rally Fail

More than 6,500 rabid grid fans saw a scrappy Bulldog team go down to a 6-0 defeat at the hands of the Grizzly aggregation after a thrilling last minute rally was halted only a few yards from the goal line by the final gun, on Dornblaser field Saturday afternoon.

Battling against time and a stout-hearted Grizzly squad, Gonzaga opened their closing attack by a 50-yard pass which was knocked down by Lazetich. Olsen then threw a pass to Karamatic which was good for 12 yards and a first down. Olsen then passed to McBreen for 8 yards, but on the next try was thrown for a loss by Lazetich, but both sides were off-side and the ball went back to its original position. Olsen then made seven on a running play before Dolan nailed him. Olsen passed again to Karamatic on the 10-yard line and he ran to the five before he was downed—then the final gun was fired.

The first quarter was played in Gonzaga territory, with no scoring threat on either side, although Popovich did make a 21-yard run before he was stopped. Whittinghill tried a field goal from the 10-yard line, but it was wide.

In the second quarter Gonzaga threatened to score when Olsen shot a 45-yard pass to Ely on Montana's 11-yard line. Matasovic came into the line-up for Montana and immediately broke through the line twice to throw the Bulldogs for a loss of 8 yards. Karamatic tried a field goal, but it too, was wide. Popovich then booted the ball 63-yards from the scrimmage line, placing the ball out of bounds on the "Zag" 5-yard line. Olsen punted out to the 37-yard line, but Montana was off-side and the "Zag" captain took the penalty instead of the gain. Olsen then booted it 10 yards. Lundberg then shot a pass to Swanson who was downed on the 4-yard line. Popovich tried four times to plunge through the Gonzaga line for a score, but failed. Olsen kicked out to the 35-yard line, where Popovich picked it up and made a sensational return, being stopped on the Gonzaga 5-yard line. Gonzaga was penalized for off-side on the first play and the ball was placed on the 1-yard line where Lazetich crashed through center for a touchdown. Vogel failed to convert the extra point.

In the third quarter Gonzaga used many deceptive plays and as a result, lost yardage by lack of interference. Montana made many substitutions and both teams zig-zagged from one end of the field to the other.

Early in the fourth quarter, Montana regulars came back into the lineup. Popovich broke away for a run that looked like a touchdown jaunt, but the ball was called back for a 20-yard gain as he had stepped out of bounds. A few plays later he again broke away for a 16-yard sweep. Matasovic was hurt but remained in the game. Then Gonzaga began their final drive toward the goal.

Milton Popovich was by far the outstanding backfield man, making more yards than Olsen and Karamatic of Gonzaga combined, while Bill Matasovic, Montana's giant center, was the mainstay in the line.

Substitutions: Montana—Spellman, rg; Shields, lb; Morris, c; Williams, re; Lundberg, Q; Brown, lb; Jenkins, rb; Golden, c; A. Peterson, g; Williams, le; McDonald, t; Pomajevich, t. Gonzaga

Officials: Referee, George Varnell, Seattle; umpire, Sam Dolan, Corvallis; head linesman, Ralph Coleman, Corvallis; Field Judge, Mike Henry, Butte.

Summary
First downs: Montana, 7; Gonzaga, 14. Passes thrown: Montana, 7; Gonzaga, 17. Passes completed: Montana, 2; Gonzaga, 10. Passes intercepted: Montana, 1; Gonzaga, 1. Yards by rushing: Montana, 149; Gonzaga, 137.

His fears were well founded. The Bulldogs started throwing the ball and it looked like they weren't going to stop until they hit pay-dirt. But like many well meaning prospectors, the gun stopped them. The sound of the gun was pleasant, stopping the Gonzaga attack on the five-yard line. In the last few minutes the Bulldogs' passing was phenomenal. Usually when a team starts throwing the ball around in a desperate effort to score, they are intercepted by the defending team. Olsen, who so far outshone Karamatic that the comparison of the two is silly, couldn't miss his targets.

It was mentioned in this column last week that the Grizzlies were weak on pass defense. The comment still goes. There was a question about the legality of a few of the last passes. They seemed to be screened, which calls for a penalty on the throwing team. Toward the end of the game the Grizzly linemen were not rushing the passer fast enough and he had too much time to pass. The best defense against passes is to hurry the thrower, and it is a 10-to-1 shot that the Grizzlies will do plenty of rushing during practice this week.

A "flea flicker" is a quick pass or forward lateral pass that is handled deftly and depends on the lateral effect for a major gain. A "mouse trap" play is one where the defensive guard is allowed to enter the backfield and is taken out of the play from the side by the blocking back. This play is especially designed for hard-charging guards and is known in some sections as the "sucker play."

Three Teams Undefeated In Touch Ball

Sigma Nu, Sigma Chi, Phi Sigs Lead League; Phi Delt Defeated

Sigma Chi and Sigma Nu held their places at the top of the Interfraternity touch football league, while Phi Sigma Kappa forged up with the leaders with a stunning 10-0 victory over Phi Delta Theta. Sigma Chi also slipped past the Phi Delt in aggregate points with a total of 58 scored in four games.

Phi Sig-Phi Delt
Phi Sigma Kappa toppled Phi Delta Theta out of a commanding position in the league with a well-earned 10 to 0 win.

A large and enthusiastic crowd saw the two teams battle through three scoreless but hotly contested quarters. In the final period, a pass from N. Mariana to Stoebe counted the first touchdown, with Mariana converting. Mariana ended the scoring with a perfect 38-yard field goal.

Hanrahan was all over the field snaring passes for the Phi Sigs, while Adhens, the Phi Delt star, was kept under control most of the game.

Sigma Chi-Independents
Sigma Chi's defence held a determined Independent team scoreless in the first half and then pushed over three touchdowns in the second half to win 19-0.

Lack of a competent passer nullified the Independent's constant first half threat.

Sigma Nu-Sig Ep
After dominating the play during the entire game, Sigma Phi Epsilon fell apart under pressure and lost to Sigma Nu 2-0 in the play-off.

Phi Delt-D. S. L.
Phi Delta Theta turned on the heat in the first half to score two touchdowns and then coasted to a 13-0 win over Delta Sigma Lambda. Adhens intercepted a D. S. L. pass to chalk up the first Phi Delt touchdown. A few plays later, the old sleeper play found Adhens in D. S. L. pay dirt again.

Sigma Nu-A. T. O.
In a dull, listless game, Sigma Nu defeated Alpha Tau Omega 13-0. The winners scored late in the second quarter on a pass, Miller to Scheezy.

In the last period Schmoll intercepted an A. T. O. pass on his own goal line and out-ran the field to score. Two plays later Schmoll fumbled behind the goal line to avert another counter.

D. S. L.-S. A. E.
Delta Sigma Lambda won a hard fought struggle from the luckless S. A. E.s 7-6. The losers took the opening kickoff and marched down the field to score, but failed to convert. D. S. L. scored on a pass to Frisbee and the point after touchdown was awarded when the S. A. E.s were off-side on the play. This play will probably be protested.

Phi Sig-A. T. O.
Alpha Tau Omega failed to show for their scheduled contest with Phi Sigma Kappa, the Phi Sigs winning by forfeit 2-0.

Sigma Chi-D. S. L.
Delta Sigma Lambda also forfeited their game to Sigma Chi.

Sorority Women Pass New Rules
Delegate from City Organization Will Attend Meeting
Rushes cannot be pledged until one week after payment of their dollar but they may be rushed any number of times prior to payment of the money. This announcement was made at Panhellenic meeting last Thursday evening at the Alpha Chi house. "A report is to be given to Acting Dean Mary Elrod Ferguson of every girl who plans on becoming initiated so that Dean Ferguson may check up on her scholastic standing," said Esther Swanson, president of the council. Mrs. V. R. Jones, president of city Panhellenic, attended the meeting and a representative from this organization will attend all the meetings in the future.

Forty-five Men Make Up Weighty Freshman Squad

Four-Ton Football Outfit for Frosh Coach Johnnie Sullivan

Seven thousand seven hundred and twenty-three pounds, approximately four tons of football material, dressed in 45 Cub football uniforms, are working out daily under Coach John Sullivan.

At present there are 45 men on the Cub squad, Coach Sullivan having added four last Tuesday. The average weight of the entire squad is slightly above 171 pounds.

Heaviest man on this year's Cub team is B. Tate, Dillon, 220-pounder. This beats last year's freshman heavyweight, Joe Strizich, Great Falls, by 20 pounds. Next, tipping the scales at 195 pounds, are W. Malahowski, Chicago; H. Schaffer, Butte, and K. Narbutas, Chicago.

The remaining weights are as follows:
W. Aho, Butte, 177; E. Bofto, Great Falls, 170; V. Bowen, Winnett, 170; P. Bradley, Billings, 165; I. Buckland, Great Falls, 173; A. Chesbro, Belt, 187; S. Clawson, Los Angeles, 190; J. Gonnor, Helena, 157; D. Davidoff, Flemington, New Jersey, 165; J. Duncan, Billings, 189; E. Edie, Columbia Falls, 169; J. Emigh, Kankakee, Illinois, 146; J. Evans, Butte, 170; H. Fry, Kallispell, 174; R. Gerard, Laurel, 153.

E. Holiday, Libby, 171; J. Hoon, Helena, 170; L. Howell, Butte, 172;

M. Kelly, Deer Lodge, 184; H. Koch, Missoula, 170; L. Lewis, Percy, Illinois, 182; R. Lundberg, Inverness, 166; W. Manning, Culbertson, 170; A. Mitchell, Butte, 173; W. Morris, Chicago, 170; C. Norman, Billings, 166; F. Nugent, Miles City, 160; E. Ogle, Livingston, 173.

H. Phillips, Helena, 161; W. Rolston, Forsyth, 157; B. Ryan, Livingston, 164; B. Rice, Butte, 149; P. Stenson, Kallispell, 185; E. Tabaracci, Great Falls, 165; G. Van Bramer, Billings, 176; E. Viche, Superior, 180; J. Watkins, Thompson Falls, 174; J. Wilcox, Stevensville, 152; G. Rogers, Missoula, 160.

Fernon Fox, graduate of the pharmacy school in 1927, is a representative of the Upjohn Pharmaceutical company, with headquarters in Colorado Springs, Colo.

John Previs, '36, ex-Grizzly football player, was among the alumni attending Saturday's game. Previs is now coaching at Victor.

Final Matches In Tennis Play Are Tomorrow

Garlington Defeats Smith to Enter Championship Game; Rice To Meet Shallenberger

Phil Garlington, Missoula, qualified for the finals of the fall tennis tournament, Saturday morning, when he defeated LaRue Smith, Great Falls, by set scores of 11-9, 4-6 and 6-0. Although the first two sets were extremely close, Smith blew up in the third enabling Garlington to win the match with a love set.

The championship match will be played tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Bill Shallenberger, Missoula, and Ashley Rice, Billings, are playing this afternoon to decide who will meet Garlington.

In the quarter finals, Rice defeated Art Merrick, Great Falls, 6-2, 4-6, 6-1; Shallenberger won from Ed Erlandson, Missoula, 6-4, 6-4; Smith defeated Carter Williams, Boulder, 6-1, 6-4, and Garlington won from Jack Chisholm, Helena, 6-3, 6-2.

Patricia Torrence, '31, technician at the state hospital, Warm Springs, and Margaret Wynn, '32, now teaching at Alberton, were campus visitors recently.

Basball Fans Will Ask Return Of Major Sport

Petition for the Re-establishment
Of Game Will Be Presented
Friday Morning

Montana's baseball future is expected to be in the hands of Central board Friday morning when a petition being circulated on the campus, will be presented. Favorable action may re-establish baseball as a major sport.

"Our petition for re-entering Montana in the baseball conference and again establishing it as a major sport is rapidly taking form and will be ready to present to Central board Friday morning," said Nick Mariana, Miles City, and Mel Singleton, Wolf Point, who are working towards Montana's re-entrance in the coast baseball conference. Facts which they hope will show that Montana should be back in the conference will be presented in the petition. Favorable action by the student body may induce Central board to rule favorably.

Montana as a member of the Northwest conference won the championship in 1920 and 1921 under the coaching of Dr. W. E. Schreiber, present director of the physical education department. Later the Northwest conference became a part of the Pacific coast conference and is now divided into the Northern and Southern division for baseball competition. Montana would, if the petition were passed, become a member of the Northern division of the Pacific coast conference.

Delegates from the conference schools meet in Los Angeles in December and steps must be taken now in order to have a Montana delegate present should ASUM and Central board pass favorably. President George Finlay Simmons gave his approval last spring.

Communications

October 19, 1936
South Hall

Miss Virginia Hamblat
Editor, Montana Kaimin
Dear Miss Hamblat:

I would like to thank you for your offer to use the Kaimin as a means of communication with the AWS council, but since you have presented the case for the council I prefer to address my communication to you.

Your first point, Miss Hamblat, was that the rules this year are more lenient than ever before. Even if this point be granted—and I don't know that it should—the stand taken by the AWS council is still absolutely unjustifiable. The generosity of the council is reminiscent of that of the old Puritan Church Fathers who, in a glorious burst of benevolence and broad-mindedness, allowed the Puritan women to wear white collars with their required twenty pounds of ground-sweeping dress. The council's supposed concessions are so dwarfed by the absurdities still remaining in the rules that it is hard to believe that such concessions were actually made. We can't find much consolation in the fact that this year's petty intolerance isn't quite as bad as last year's.

As for your second point, Miss Hamblat, that these rules are made by upperclass women who have profited by their experience, may I say that as a senior in high school I had the same attitude toward freshman initiation as the council seems to have toward freshman supervision. I hadn't enjoyed my own initiation but when four years had cooled the remembrance of a blistered posterior I could see its advantages.

Even the greenest of freshmen, Miss Hamblat, realizes that no one gets paid for enjoying himself. We don't expect any salary or diploma for our activities in connection with the ladies and we can even bear a few minutes now and then without them. If you will read the petition as printed in your editorial columns you will observe that no protest is made against "no-date days" or "restricted hours" rules. We realize their value and are only too glad to co-operate in their enforcement. Our quarrel is with the rules concerning conversation, downtown appearance, North hall "no man's land," and the general atmosphere of now children, "your's not to question why." All together, 1-2-3 step.

If you or the AWS council can demonstrate logically and reasonably that escorting a young lady to her door, carrying on a 15-minute conversation with her, or appearing downtown in her company is going to seriously interfere with her studies or weaken her morals then all the freshmen men will willingly bow their heads to the "powers that be" and retire to the sanctuary of their homes, avoiding the female like the plague.

I am sure, Miss Hamblat, that if any immaturity of mind has been

Ticket to Butte Will Be Awarded

Door Prize at Matinee Mixer
To Be Given Thursday

A round trip ticket to Butte, Saturday, or its equivalent in cash will be awarded to the lucky person as a door prize at the matinee mixer Thursday afternoon in the Gold room of the Student Union building. The hours for the affair will be from 4 to 6 o'clock. An admission charge of 15 cents will be made for each person attending the dance.

Leo Valiton's 10-piece dance band will provide music during the afternoon. Stiles Beckley will be the featured vocalist. The mixer is a no-date affair sponsored by the Student Union. Both men and women are urged to attend since the purpose of these weekly dances is to aid old and new students in getting acquainted.

"Since dates are not encouraged, all co-eds should feel free to attend matinee dances without male escorts," said Alem LaBar, Laurel, assistant manager of Student Union, yesterday. Approximately two hundred and twenty-five students attended last week's mixer.

Gotta Way!

"Severy Has Got a Way;
Stops Ducks Get-Away,"
Professors Say

Not a few faculty members came home shuffling last week—dragging their guns and red caps behind them. The elusive duck, from all reports, is more elusive than ever this year.

Dr. J. W. Severy, off the grade curve, topped the fowl fencers with a grade of "A." Congenial Athletic Department Head "Doc" Schreiber came in with the "B" he so often fails to give. But there were others—not to mention the "middlemen" who always get the "C's."

"Incompletes" were given to Paul Bischoff, B. E. Thomas, E. A. Atkinson, R. L. Housman, G. A. Castle, L. W. Richards and C. L. Hitchcock who failed to report their luck.

displayed in this incident it has been on the part of the AWS council in formulating these rules and not on the part of the petitioners in objecting to them.

Sincerely,
James Browning, Belt

First Winners To Be Awarded Contest Prizes

M. McCollum Expects Scorecast
Rewards for Presentation
At Convocation

Montana's fighting Grizzlies versus Montana's snarling Bobcats and Oregon State's Beavers against a tough Washington State Cougar pack are the week's scorecast predictions, says M. H. McCollum, manager of the Associated Student's store and sponsor of the weekly scorecast contest.

Enthusiasm in this week's contest is running high. It is hoped that the prizes for the winners of last week's forecast will be here for presentation at Thursday's convocation. Ballots are taken from the boxes at noon of the day of the game and sent to San Francisco where they are counted and the winners selected.

"Where's my prize?" yelled Freshman Coach John Sullivan. "I predicted the Montana-Gonzaga game correctly."

"I am sure the prizes will be here Thursday," said Mr. McCollum, "and I am as anxious as you are to see what's actually in the bag."

James Freeburg, 1936 graduate in geology, is now on active duty with the 7th Infantry of the United States army at Vancouver Barracks, Washington.

Lucky for You — It's a Light Smoke!

FOR BIG MOMENTS
— A Light Smoke!
Wedding bells — exciting times, with lots of smoking. Consider your throat and reach for a light smoke . . . reach for a Lucky!

When Thrilling Events Lead To Constant Smoking!

When you're excited . . . nervous . . . happy and thrilled, you smoke many cigarettes without thinking about it. Make your choice a light smoke. Smoke Luckies—for Luckies are a light smoke of rich, ripe-bodied tobacco. They are made of the center leaves of the finest tobaccos that money can buy. And they are the only cigarette in which you'll find the all-important throat protection of the "Toasting" process. Yes, the only cigarette. Lucky Strike . . . the fine-tasting cigarette . . . the cigarette that "lives happily ever-after" with your throat.
