ART FOR JUNIOR HIGH STUDENTS
OFFERED AT UM BEGINNING THURSDAY

MISSOULA--

An art program for students in grades seven through nine will be offered by the University of Montana from 9 a.m.-noon each weekday beginning June 24 and continuing through July 8.

Diane Bodholt, Missoula, will teach the classes, which will be held in room 105 of the University Center. Students will work in drawing, painting, printmaking, batik and dye tying, ceramics, and macrame. Students are encouraged to bring scrap materials from home to be used in the classes.

A $5 fee will be charged for the 10-session program.

Further information about the program may be obtained and registration may be completed by phoning 243-4674.
