CONTINENTAL OIL GIVES $500
TO UM BUSINESS SCHOOL

MISSOULA--

An unrestricted gift of $500 recently was given to the University of Montana School of Business Administration by the Continental Oil Company (CONOCO).

The gift was presented to Dr. Robert J. Connole, chairman of the UM school's department of management, by John C. Steffens, manager of dealer training of the Billings CONOCO division.

Dr. Rudyard B. Goode, chairman of the business school, said the funds will be used during the next year to further the department's academic program.
