ATLANTA STRING QUARTET
OFFERS LESSONS TO STRING PLAYERS

MISSOULA--

Members of the Atlanta String Quartet, a professional music ensemble affiliated with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, Atlanta, Ga., will offer private study for string players of all ages during their three-week stay on the University of Montana campus.

The quartet is visiting the UM campus from Aug. 1-20 to present concerts and lecture-demonstrations during the Montana High School Fine Arts Camp Aug. 1-13 and the Montana String Teachers Symposium Aug. 1-3 at UM.

Quartet members include Karen Andrie, cellist who is a former student of Dr. Florence Reynolds, a UM music professor; Dennis Cleveland, violin, who studied at the Juilliard School of Music under Ivan Galamian; Harold Byers, violin, also a Galamian student; and Mark Childs, viola, a graduate of the Curtis Institute.

Private study with the quartet members is being offered for a nominal fee to string players throughout Montana through the auspices of the Montana High School Fine Arts Camp, which is under the direction of Donald A. Carey, a UM assistant professor of music. Further information may be obtained by writing the UM Department of Music or by phoning the department at 243-5111.
