ELECTION DAY IS HOLIDAY
FOR UM STUDENTS

MISSOULA--

There will be no classes and offices will be closed at the University of Montana Tuesday (Nov. 2) as a result of a ruling by State Attorney General Robert Woodahl.

Woodahl ruled that Election Day, Nov. 2, will be a holiday for all state institutions.

The UM Library will remain open Tuesday, however, / during its regular hours, 8 a.m.-midnight. A skeleton staff in Library public service departments will work Tuesday, while technical service departments at the Library will be closed.
