"KING", A CIVIL RIGHTS FILM,
TO BE SHOWN TUESDAY AT UM

MISSOULA--

"KING: A Filmed Record...Montgomery to Memphis," will be shown at 8 p.m. Tuesday (Nov. 16) in the University Center Ballroom at the University of Montana. showing
The film/is sponsored by the UM Christian Campus Ministries, the UM Black Studies Department and the Program Council of the Associated Students of UM.

The film, "KING," is made available by the Martin Luther King Foundation for special campus showing to students, faculty, administrators and their families, and to the general public without charge.

"KING" is a three-hour history of the civil rights movement from the Montgomery bus boycott to the assassination of King. The film depicts the events as they occurred from 1956-68, utilizing newsreel and television footage. "KING" recreates the sit-ins, jail-ins and mass marches for voting, housing and economic rights, which demonstrated the power of nonviolent direct action for social change.

The film was nominated for an Academy Award after a one-night exhibition to a half-million people in 300 cities.

Joseph F. Purcell, social-recreation area coordinator for Program Council, said financial donations will be accepted Tuesday.
