ART DISPLAY DATE CHANGES
ANNOUNCED AT UNIVERSITY

MISSOULA--

Dates for a public art display honoring 15th-16th century German Artist Albrecht Durer have been changed at the University of Montana because of a conflict with Thanksgiving Vacation.

Dean Douglas, director of the Gallery of Visual Arts in Turner Hall, said the free public display in the gallery would be held from 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Nov. 29-on
Dec. 3 and Dec. 6-10. The exhibit will not be open from Nov. 22-24 and Nov. 26 as previously scheduled because of a conflict with Thanksgiving Vacation from Nov. 21-28 at UM.

The exhibit, sponsored by the National Museum in Nuremberg, German, in recognition of the 500th anniversary since Durer's birth in 1471, will be entitled "Durer and His Time." The exhibit contains 50 panels, including reproductions of such famous woodcuts as the Apocalypse.
