MISSOULA GIRL GIVEN 'SPIRIT
OF THE 55TH' AWARD AT UM

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana Forestry Club presented the "Spirit of the 55th" award to Marion Garrettson, Missoula, a sophomore in elementary education at UM, during the annual Foresters' Convocation Monday night at UM.

The special award was presented to Miss Garrettson for her enthusiasm and participation in the 55th annual Foresters' Ball activities.

Miss Garrettson, 23, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Garrettson, Bud Lake Village, was a semi-finalist for the 1971 Foresters' Ball Queen. The ball, which begins at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday, will be held in the Harry Adams Field House at UM.

The Foresters' Convocation Monday night officially launched Foresters' Week activities, which will be highlighted by the ball this weekend.

Tickets for the ball can be obtained at John Carlson's Tape and Stereo Living Room, 137 W. Front. Tickets will also be available from noon-5 p.m. daily through Friday (Dec. 3) in the University Center Mall at UM and also at the Field House Friday and Saturday nights.
