AROTC SCHOLARSHIPS
AWARDED TO THREE UM CADETS

MISSOULA--

Col. Walter A. Pashley, Jr., professor of military science at the University of Montana, recently announced that Army ROTC Scholarships were awarded to three UM AROTC cadets.

three-and-one-half

Receiving a year scholarship was Kenneth C. Cyr, Huson, a history and political science major at UM.

Richard A. Engel, a history major at UM, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis I. Engel, Missoula, and Richard J. Williams, a health and physical education major at UM, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Williams, Long Valley, N.J., each received a one-year scholarship.

The Army ROTC scholarships will pay all tuition, textbook and lab fees, and each of the three students will receive $100 in monthly ~~su~~bsistence allowances.

This fall, 1,067 high school graduates were awarded four-year AROTC scholarships. More than 2,000 scholarships are expected to be offered in 1972. There are over 5,500 students presently attending colleges under the scholarships.
