HJELMSETH APPOINTED
CSD ASSISTANT DIRECTOR
AT UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

MISSOULA, Mont.--

Dr. Fred Weldon, director of the Center for Student Development at the University of Montana, has announced the appointment of Dr. Don E. Hjelmseth as assistant director of the CSD. The appointment was effective July 1.

Hjelmseth, 38, has been assistant professor in the Division of Educational Research and Services at UM. In his new position he will be responsible for campus-wide career planning and graduate placement services.

Before / <sup>joining the DERS staff</sup> at UM in 1970 he was a staff member in the Extension Division at North Dakota State University, Fargo.

Hjelmseth worked in community resource development, served as a coordinator of adult education programs with the North Dakota State Department of Public Instruction and held various administrative and teaching positions in North Dakota. He served as superintendent of schools in three North Dakota communities--Marmarth, 1958-60; Trenton, 1960-63, and Halliday, 1963-65.

A native of Bismarck, N.D., Hjelmseth received his bachelor's degree at Dickinson State College, Dickinson, N.D., in 1958. UM awarded him two degrees, the Master of Education degree in 1964 and the Doctor of Education degree in 1972.

Hjelmseth, his wife and the couple's three school-age children live in Missoula.
