University of Montana ticket manager Gary Hughes has a limited number of 50-yard line seats available for UM's football game in Great Falls Sept. 8.

The Grizzlies play Simon Fraser University, Burnaby, British Columbia, that evening in Great Falls' Memorial Stadium. The game will serve as the season-opener for both teams.

Hughes has received 1000 tickets for the game. "The seating is for the East side and all of the tickets are between the two 20-yard lines. I have a few tickets on the 50," Hughes said.

The cost of the reserve seats is $4.50 apiece.

Hughes said that he will be returning any unsold tickets to Great Falls Aug. 31.

Phone reservations can be made by calling the UM Ticket Office at 243-4051.

The Simon Fraser football program prides itself on the number of former players it has in Canada's professional football league. For instance, eight former Clansmen are listed on the roster of the Grey Cup Champion B. C. Lions.
