15 EXTENSION COURSES
AT UM HAVE OPENINGS

MISSOULA--

Openings still are available in 15 courses offered at night during fall quarter at the University of Montana by the UM Extension Division.

Those interested in taking any of the courses may sign up on the appropriate nights at the designated classrooms. Most of the classes meet from 7-10 p.m. one night a week.

Courses offered through the UM Extension Division this fall are in anthropology; art; business administration; computer science; education; English; health, physical education and recreation; history; home economics; pharmacy, and social work.

Additional information about the night courses may be obtained from Mrs. Anne Dwelle (pronounced Dwelly), assistant to the director of Extension and Continuing Education, by phoning her at 243-2900.
