ALUMNAE, UM WOMEN STUDENTS WITH 3.5 GPA
MAY APPLY FOR $2,000 FELLOWSHIPS FOR GRAD STUDY

MISSOULA--

College or university alumnae, or women who are either graduate students or graduating seniors at the University of Montana in Missoula may--provided they were members of Alpha Lambda Delta as sophomores--apply through the UM Student Affairs Office, room 101 of the Lodge, for any of the seven $2,000 fellowships being offered for graduate study for the 1974-75 academic year by the National Council of Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's scholastic honorary.

Awards available under the ALD program include the Maria Leonard Fellowship, the Alice Crocker Lloyd Fellowship, the Adele Hagner Stamp Fellowship, the Kathryn Sisson Phillips Fellowship, the Christine Yerges Conaway Fellowship, the May Augusta Brunson Fellowship and the 50th Anniversary Miriam A. Shelden Fellowship.

Concerning prospective fellowship applicants, Mrs. Margaret McGuire, adviser to UM foreign students and handicapped students, said, "Any member of Alpha Lambda Delta who graduated with a cumulative grade point average of 3.5 (B-plus), the honorary's minimum initiation standard, is eligible to apply. Graduating senior women at UM may apply if they have maintained this average to the end of the first quarter of the current academic year."

Applicants will be judged on scholastic record, recommendations, the soundness of their stated project and purpose, and need.

Each applicant must submit the application form herself to the national headquarters of the scholastic honorary by Jan. 5, 1974. McGuire has additional information and the application forms at her office, Lodge 101.
