The University of Montana women's volleyball team started slow and then surged back to best Montana State University two sets to one in volleyball action last weekend in Bozeman.

UM lost the first set by scores of 9-15, 15-6, and 12-15. In the remaining two sets, UM dominated their opponents. Game scores were 15-4, 15-4 and 15-12, 15-3.

According to coach Jodi Leslie, Montana had trouble adjusting to MSU's offensive style of play. Once the adjustments were made, UM took command of the game.

This Friday, the spikers travel to Pullman, Washington for a triangular with Washington State University and Eastern Wsshington State College.

UM's match record stands at 3-2-3.
