DONALD KOEPPEN TO REPRESENT
NATEBOE ON BO-CEC PROJECT

MISSOULA--

Dr. Donald B. Koeppen, chairman of the University of Montana Department of Business Education and president of the National Association of Teacher Educators of Business and Office Education (NATEBOE), has been invited to represent NATEBOE on the National Advisory Committee for the Business and Office Career Education Curriculum (BO-CEC) Project.

The project objectives are to meet the career-education needs of children, youth and adults from kindergarten through community college, as well as to meet the needs of business and industry for well prepared employees.

Koeppen will represent NATEBOE at two BO-CEC National Advisory Committee meetings, Dec. 2 in Atlanta, Ga., and the third week in January in Chicago, Ill. Committee members include national leaders in business and office education as well as national leaders in business and industry.

The two-year BO-CEC Project was funded by the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare on July 1, 1973, and awarded to Colorado State University, Ft. Collins, the the project headquarters.

Dr. Harry Huffman, professor of vocational education at CSU, is project director of BO-CEC.
