A group of eight women will perform pom pon and dance routines at the half of the University of Montana-Augustana basketball game Thursday night at Adams Fieldhouse.

The women, all UM students, will perform during all home games, but will debut at Thursday's game, which is the first home contest of the season for the Grizzlies, as the halftime entertainment.

The co-eds will perform two routines. One will be to Sly and the Family Stone's recording "Dance to the Music" and the other will be to Helen Reddy's "Leave Me Alone".

The group of Karen Roberts, Trudi Knudsen, Susan McLaughlin, Jody Hill, Casey Chilton, Susan Muskett, Mary McElwain and Brenda Herbig does not have a name and a "Name the Pom Pon Girls" contest is being conducted on the UM campus. The winner of the contest and his suggested name will be announced at Thursday's game.

Friday night two teams from the YMCA Grade School Basketball League will serve as the halftime entertainment.

In addition to the halftime entertainment, the Grizzly Pep Band, which is directed by Lance Boyd, will play prior to, during and at halftime of the varsity game.

The Grizzlies meet Augustana at 7:30 Thursday evening and Southern Colorado at 7:30 Friday night. The UM Cubs play 5:30 preliminaries each night. The Cubs face Montana State's frosh club Thursday and Spokane Falls Community College Friday.
