ERIC SPRADO BAND TO PLAY
FOR 57TH FORESTERS BALL AT UM

MISSOULA--

A band directed by Eric Sprado, who lives northeast of Hamilton, is scheduled to play for the 57th Annual Foresters Ball Jan. 11-12 at the University of Montana.

James L. Parrish, Hinsdale, Ill., a UM senior who is publicity chairman for the ball, said the Sprado group "plays bluegrass, fiddle-type music."

Sprado, who is a logger, also shoes horses and he has competed successfully in several fiddle contests, Parrish said.

The upcoming ball will be held in the UM Men's Gym for the second consecutive year. Members of the UM Forestry Student Association, which sponsors the annual event as a scholarship-loan fund raising project, will lay protective flooring over the regular gym floor Jan. 8.

Ball tickets will go on sale Jan. 7 in the University Center.
