HEW REVIEW VISIT
RESCHEDULED FOR FEB. 16

MISSOULA--

A review visit by representatives from the Office of Civil Rights, U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, has been rescheduled from mid-January to Feb. 16, according to George L. Mitchell, University of Montana administrative vice president.

The review visit follows a 31-page report received by University officials in December outlining 10 deficiencies in University policies and procedures and giving recommendations for improvements. The report was the result of a 10-day visit by HEW personnel last August that was initiated by a class action complaint alleging sex discrimination at UM.

Mitchell said the report requested a revised Affirmative Action Plan for implementing the recommendations, and the plan will be presented to the review team in February.
