President MacLeod called the meeting to order.

Evie Morris, as chairman of Publications Board, recommended that Verne Frackman, Joyce Phillips, and Mary Ann Luebben be appointed co-editors, and Peg Thrailkill, business manager of the 1943-44 Kaimin. Phillips has completed only two quarters at the University, but definitely will go to summer school, he said.

Castle moved that Central Board approve the recommendation of Publications Board that Verne Frackman, Mary Ann Luebben, and Joyce Phillips (with the provision that she complete the summer quarter) be appointed co-editors of the Kaimin for the year 1943-44, with the understanding that one of them be named responsible editor for each quarter. Hesser seconded and the motion was carried.

Gulbrandson moved that Central Board approve the recommendation of Publications Board that Peg Thrailkill be appointed business manager of the 1943-44 Kaimin. Castle seconded and the motion was carried.

Morris made the recommendation that the Kaimin be cut next year to a weekly, with a possible increase in pages, thereby reducing printing costs and over-all work. He also recommended that Dean Ford be kept on Publications Board in a purely advisory capacity as non-voting member. However, Central Board took no action.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.
