Central Board Meeting
February 3, 1942

The meeting was called to order by the president, Marcus Bourke, and the minutes were read and approved.

Mr. Karns, Mr. Crowder, and Mr. Lester were again present at the meeting to discuss with the board the plans for the spring operetta. A committee of three, Marcus Bourke, Joe Mudd, and Earl Fairbanks presented a report showing the primary object of the all-school musical. This resolution was revised according to suggestions made by the board members as well as those made by Karns, Crowder, and Lester. This resolution will be revised and presented again at the next regular meeting.

The Aber Day committee was unable to present any complete report but will discuss further their plans at the next regular meeting.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

Rose Marie Bourdeau
