'AMERICA'S THIRD CENTURY' TOPIC
OF ROCKEFELLER'S ADDRESS AT UM

(Editor's Note: New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller has scheduled a news conference at 3:30 p.m. Friday (April 13) in the University Center. The exact room location will be dependent upon the number of interested newsmen. Newsmen who wish to attend should submit their names and telephone numbers to the UM Information Services office no later than 5 p.m. Tuesday (April 10) in order to receive confirmation of the news conference room. Gov. Rockefeller will permit live radio and television coverage of his public lecture scheduled for 2 p.m. in the University Center Ballroom. Newsmen who plan to attend the news conference should phone 243-2522 to make reservations.)

MISSOULA--

"America's Third Century" will be the topic of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's public address at the University of Montana scheduled for 2 p.m. Friday (April 13) in the University Center Ballroom, Thomas J. Collins, director of the UM Foundation and coordinator of Rockefeller's visit, has announced.

Collins said Rockefeller also will meet with students and faculty as time permits. A noon luncheon with members of the campus community has also been scheduled, Collins said.

Rockefeller will present the fifth lecture in the continuing Mansfield Lectures on International Relations, honoring Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield, a UM alumnus.

The 2 p.m. lecture is open to the public without charge.
