Central Board Meeting
April 7, 1942

The meeting was called to order by the president, Francis Talcott, and the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

A discussion was held on the probabilities of next year's Sentinel and the board decided that it would be better to have a reduced yearbook rather than not have any. It was also stated by Carr that money could be saved by putting out a pamphlet instead of a yearbook next fall. Another means of saving money which was under discussion was the limitation of athletic awards such as sweaters and senior blankets. These problems will be discussed more fully later.

Delaney moved that Central Board approve the appointment of Everton Conger as chairman of the Student Union Executive Committee and that Rollin Baggenstoss be appointed to fill the remaining vacancy created by the graduation of Gayne Moxness. Fairbanks seconded and the motion carried. These appointments will be sent to the president for his final approval.

Francis Talcott appointed the following students to supervise the election tables on Aber Day:
   Francis Talcott
   Rose Marie Bourdeau
   Earl Fairbanks
   Harry Hesser
   Clyde Carr
   Ruth Heidel
   Susan Pigot
   Warren Vaughan

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

Rose Marie Bourdeau
