Hesser made the motion that Traditions Board be approved as presented. Ryan seconded.

A discussion was held as to the formation of a new committee which will work with Traditions Board. This will be called a Rally committee. The matter was tabled until it be presented to Traditions Board for its approval.

Discussion was also held concerning a Codification committee. The duties of this committee would be to keep a scrap book of all the outstanding affairs that take place on the campus and to take care of every committee under Central Board's supervision. It has been found that very few committees have any records of their meetings. This committee will enforce this matter. Badgley suggested that there be a special case containing a standard minute book labeled for each committee. This committee will be composed of:

Ray Ryan
Robert Hurley
Jean Gerrish
Robert Dow
Dorothy Fern Holley
Dana LeValley

Briggs made a motion that we authorize the creation of a Codification committee for the purpose of organizing and systematizing the histories of the various A.E.M.S.U. committees for 1941-42. Joe Mudd made a motion that we accept the Codification committee as read for the year 1941-42. Hesser seconded the motion.

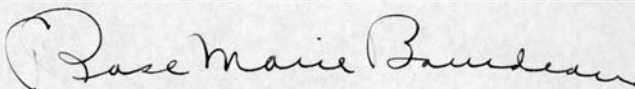

Concerning the matter of Yell King, it was found that McChesney
