CALIFORNIA TEACHER TO BE INSTRUCTOR FOR UM SILK-SCREEN WORKSHOP JUNE 18-29

MISSOULA--

Larry Earl Smith, an associate professor of printmaking at San Diego State College, San Diego, Calif., will teach a two-week silk-screen for the University of Montana Department of Art from June 18-29.

The course, available for two graduate or undergraduate credits, is listed as Art 233 and 333 and is open to all interested persons.

The class will meet five days a week from 10 a.m.-noon and 1-3 p.m. in room 403 of the UM Fine Arts Building. Registration will take place the first day of regular UM Summer Session registration June 18.

Smith's works were exhibited in the Davidson National Print and Drawing Competition, the 1971 Seattle Print International, the First Hawaii National Print Exhibition and the Northwest Printers 40th International Exhibition in Seattle. Smith has won a number of awards, including purchase awards in the 3rd Annual Exhibition of Prints and Drawings and the San Diego Second National Print Exhibition.

He was commissioned by General Dynamics to produce a commemorative edition to commemorate the Intelsat IV Missions.
