$17,000 DONATED TO
UM FOUNDATION BY
PHI SIGMA KAPPA FRATERNITY

MISSOULA--

The Mu Deuteron Association (MDA) of Phi Sigma Kappa social fraternity has donated $17,000 to the University of Montana Foundation to be used for student scholarships.

The donation, presented recently to UM President Robert T. Pantzer and Foundation Director Thomas J. Collins, was made after the local fraternity chapter disbanded and sold its fraternity house located at 1011 Gerald Avenue in Missoula.

Michael Oke, a native of Great Falls and president of the MDA, said the donation will be invested and the scholarships will be provided from the interest, thus preserving the principle amount.

The first of the scholarships will be presented to members of Greek fraternities on the Missoula campus during the 1973-74 academic year.
