GERMAN CLASSES FOR YOUNGSTERS
RESUME SATURDAY AT UNIVERSITY

MISSOULA--

German language classes for elementary school children will resume for the second quarter on Saturday, Jan. 10, at the University of Montana in Missoula.

Natives of Germany will teach the classes from 9-10:30 a.m. Saturdays in room 204 of the UM Liberal Arts Building.

Helga Hosford, coordinator of the elementary school German program for the UM Department of Foreign Languages, said that only those students who have had German previously will be accepted this quarter in the advanced class. Beginning students from fall quarter will continue with their classes. Additional information may be obtained by phoning Hosford at 243-2101 or 728-5496.

Teachers and a number of parents of the youngsters participating in the classes sponsored a pre-Christmas party for the students last month.
